Sonjui Kumar Assumes Presidency of NASABA
The North American South Asian Bar Association

July 1, 2009, Sonjui L. Kumar, a partner in the Atlanta and New Jersey based law firm, Kumar Pathak, LLC, assumed the Presidency of the North American South Asian Bar Association (NASABA). Ms. Kumar has served on the Executive Committee of NASABA for the past three years and served as a Trustee of the NASABA Foundation. She is a Past President and Board Member of IndusBar of Georgia, one of the original Chapters of NASABA and was Co-Chair of NASABA's National Convention held in June 2006 at the Intercontinental Hotel in Buckhead.

NASABA is the umbrella organization for 27 regional bar associations and serves as the unified voice for South Asian attorneys in North America. Founded in 2003, NASABA is an incorporated, 501(c)(6) non-profit association representing the interests of over 6,000 South Asian attorneys, judges, law professors, and law students in the United States and Canada. NASABA benefits its member chapters through professional development, nationwide networking and referral services. www.nasaba.com.
