

Annual Report Filing Extensions Available in Some States

Only some states have extended the deadlines to submit company annual reports due to COVID-19. States listed below have extended annual report submission deadlines. Keep in mind that several Secretary of State offices may have reduced their operating hours or closed altogether due to COVID-19. Closings may delay some current orders and potentially some future orders as well.

Visit <https://www.cscglobal.com/blog/covid-19-state-closings/> for COVID-19 Known State Closures and Delays.

► States with Filing Extensions and Annual Report Deadline Extensions

- Arkansas Late fees will be waived on annual franchise tax until July 15, 2020
- District of Columbia Biennials and trade name renewals may be filed without penalty from April 2- June 1, 2020
- Florida Annual report filing deadline extended to June 30, 2020
- Georgia Annual registration deadline extended to May 1, 2020
- Illinois Annual report deadline extended by at least 30 days, and penalties are being waived
- Kansas Annual report filing deadline extended to July 15, 2020
- Maryland Annual report filing deadline extended to July 15 for all entities
- Michigan State and local income tax filing/payment deadlines extended to July 15, 2020
- Nevada Annual report deadline extended by 60 days
- New Hampshire Annual report deadline extended by one month

