If you would like to discuss these resources, please contact KPPB LAW at 678-443-2244.

► Paid Family Leave

Non-enforcement thru April 17: The U.S. Department of Labor announced initial guidance on FFCRA on March 24, including a bulletin announcing a temporary period of non-enforcement through April 17. ### ► Expanded Unemployment Insurance

Many states have issued a state of emergency to expand their unemployment insurance benefits. Unemployment insurance varies by state. Georgia is requiring employers to file the unemployment forms for any employees who are temporarily laid off or have had their pay reduced (emergency Rule 300-2-4-0.5). Other states are speeding up the process and waiving search-for-work requirements. Check your state's department of labor website for more information at <https://www.dol.gov/general/topic/stateresources>

► $2 Trillion Federal Economic Stimulus Package PENDING

More relief is on the way. The Senate and House will soon pass a $2 trillion relief package that extends an extraordinary lifeline to Americans who have been affected by the coronavirus (workers, the unemployed, the self-employed and contractors). Businesses large and small would receive hundreds of billions of dollars in financial assistance in the hope that they'll avoid shutting down or laying off employees. Once the stimulus package passes, we'll share more details about what additional relief might be available.
